

What behavior have we observed? What can we imagine them doing?

See an example

What are their fears, frustrations, and anxieties? What other feelings might influence their behavior?